

FIND IT

where is my superannuation?

Do I have lost super?

Each job you have means your employer pays money into your super. If you move house, change jobs, change names you can lose track of it. It's easy to find using your tax file number! Go to MyGov to start looking for your money!

How do I keep on top of this?

Keep your super in one place. Take your super with you to your next job and nominate it as your fund when you start. Keep finding ways to keep your super in one place so you get the most money out of it when you retire.

Ok I found it, now what?

One fund means less fees, less paperwork and bigger balances to earn more money. But which one is best for you? Think about these things: which funds can my current employer pay into to keep growing it? Which has the best insurance? For help go to:
